Kia Ora, Talofa & Greetings
Parents/Caregivers & Whanau

We welcome the following children and their families to morning Oscar House: Ollie B & Jayden. Term Two of 2019 came around so quick that we could still feel the heat of the sun is shining just as we did in Term 1. The children are now very much in tune with the Oscar House morning routine and so welcoming to our new friends.

We've enjoyed colouring-in competitions, Lego building and Samoan Art to celebrate Samoan Language Week - 'Vaiaso o le Gagana Samoa'. Learning the very basics
Talofa – Hello,
Tofa – Goodbye,
Fa'afetai – Thank you.
Counting from 1-10. Tasi, lua, tolu, lima, ono, fitu, valu, iva, sefulu.

FARWELL We sadly had to farewell one of our longest serving staff members – Leigh. We shared a special breakfast together. We wish her all the best in her future endeavors as she and her husband move to Wanaka in the South Island.

BREAKFAST: At 8 o'clock Zara or Tai would say: 'Breakfast children sit at the breakfast table' and all those who enjoy having their breakfast at OSCAR are always ready at the table to be served by staff. We know that they enjoy the company and the wonderful conversations that are had.

FAREWELL: Sadly at the end of May we said farewell to Zara with a special pikelet breakfast. We wish her all the best and she will surely be missed.

GROUP TIME The children always enjoy a group game before leaving for school. In the river on the bank, Paper Scissors Rock, Simon says, Who Am I? ...along with a story. On Mondays, we usually like to share how the weekend went.

NEW STAFF:

We've welcomed some old staff back – Hi to Nina! although Nina's usually over at morning for Senior Programme, she has also worked at Korokoro and Seniors!

Izzy is a uni student who is working at several programmes including Kelson.

Judy has just commenced with us and is enjoying learning about our tamariki.

Karlee has just started a midwifery course and is training at all of our programmes.

What a great bunch of staff the children have to share their morning sessions with!
